

Four excellent speakers.

Two sessions.

Session 1 - 10:30 to 12:15

The Central Okanagan Social Studies Teachers' Association (COSSTA) invites you to participate in an awesome opportunity to see two UBC Okanagan professors present in the same session. In the first half, Brigitte Le Normand will discuss the experiences of Yugoslavian guestworkers. In the second half, Andrew Irvine will discuss a play on Socrates that he's created and has been used in high schools and universities.

Session 2 - 12:45 to 2:30

COSSTA invites you to participate in another wonderful opportunity to see two UBC Okanagan professors present in the same session. In the first half, James Hull will discuss early British Columbian identity. In the second half, Carlos Teixeira will discuss the evolution of the Kelowna area.

All four presenters will answer questions and offer insights into the skills that students need to be successful in the social sciences.

Dr. Brigitte Le Normand
Migrant workers and transnationalism – Yugoslavian guestworkers as a transnational working class.
UBC Okanagan Bio

Dr. Andrew Irvine
“Socrates and Citizenship.”
Includes a discussion of the a play that Dr. Irvine wrote on Socrates that has been used in high schools and universities.
UBC Okanagan Bio
Socrates on Trial Info.
Socrates on Trial Film

Dr. James Hull
The “Made-in-Canada” campaign and British Columbians’ sense of identity in the early 20th century.
UBC Okanagan Bio

Dr. Carlos Teixeira
Kelowna - From Retirement Community ...to University Town? - a talk about the growth/ evolution of Kelowna (population, economy, housing, sustainability, etc.).
UBC Okanagan Bio

Click here to register

February 24th, 2017

George Elliot Secondary School

10241 Bottom Wood Lake Rd.

School District 23 Professional Dev.

a place of mind
THE UNIVERSITY OF BRITISH COLUMBIA

COSSTA
CENTRAL OKANAGAN
SOCIAL STUDIES
TEACHERS' ASSOCIATION